Dear Sister Womack:

I have just returned from the West Coast where I visited at length with your son, Maurice. I have known and treasured him for a number of years. He is a great Christian who is making a unique contribution to the cause of Christ through his efforts at Pepperdine College.

I knew your husband well during the time that I lived in Cookeville, Tennessee between 1960-1966. In 1966 I moved to Abilene, Texas to become the full-time radio speaker for Herald of Truth. I am now preaching for the Highland congregation here in Abilene. When Maurice told me about your husband's death, I was stunned. I always counted him as a personal friend and appreciated his deep zeal for the cause of Christ. Please accept my sincere sympathy and concern.

I pray that God will richly bless you in the days ahead. Your life, even though lonely without your husband, can be very rich in expressing Jesus Christ who lives in us and comforts us in all our needs.

I wanted you to know of my recent visit with Maurice and my deep concern at your husband's death. I send you my prayers and best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
